FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Westfield Theatre Boosters Offers

Young Actors' Workshop for Elementary Students July 21-25

Youth in the Northern Virginia area can learn about theatre arts at the Young Actors' Workshop July 21-25, from 9 a.m. to noon at Westfield High School in Chantilly. This high-energy, educational summer musical theatre camp is open to elementary students in rising grades 2-6. Tuition is $125. Through theatre games, improvisation, acting exercises, songs, and dances, students will discover the artist inside themselves. The week culminates with a show for friends and family featuring songs and scenes from musical comedy classics.

Sponsored by Westfield Theatre Boosters and led by Westfield Theatre alumni and current students, the workshop is a great place for young actors, to learn the basics about theatre arts.

Westfield Theatre Boosters is now accepting registrations for Young Actors' Workshop. Visit www.westfieldtheatreboosters.com for an enrollment form and more information, visit Westfield Theatre Boosters on Facebook, or call 703-488-6439. Parents are urged to register early; the camp sells out each year and space is limited.
